Nail polish remover: May irritate eyes, skin and mouth, & upset stomach if swallowed.

Toothpaste: May cause stomach upset if swallowed.

Pepper spray: May irritate eyes, skin & cause breathing problems.

Insect repellent: May irritate eyes and mouth; possible seizures if swallowed.

Eye drops: May cause a variety of mild to serious symptoms if swallowed.

Hand cream: May cause stomach upset and diarrhea if large amounts swallowed.

"Chocolate" laxatives: May cause severe diarrhea.

Over-the-counter cold medicine: May cause extreme drowsiness or agitation if swallowed.

Nose spray: May cause extreme drowsiness or agitation if swallowed.

Hand sanitizer: Contains alcohol so possibly feel drunk with large amounts; may irritate eyes, skin and mouth.

Poison Purse

Be wary of the danger you may carry.

Copyright 2007 University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics Authority Board
For more information, contact ppec@uwhealth.org